"Thank you, Barbie," I say .

"You're welcome, Kelly," she says . "It's a big bear for a big girl!"

Barbie asks, "What are you going to name him ?"

"I know the perfect name . I'm going to call him Big Bear!"

"Let's go and see how he likes your room," Barbie says.

Big Bear is so big he doesn't fit into my bed. Where's he going to sleep? There's a new big bed in my room . I wonder if he would like to sleep on it . The new bed is for me, but I haven't tried it out yet . I put Big Bear in my new bed . The bed is very big . "Do you think Big Bear will be lonely?" I ask Barbie.

VIII. Read the given poem and answer the given questions below.

May there always be Tigers.

In the jungles and tall grass

May the tiger's roar be hard,

May his thunder

Be known in the land.

At the forest pool, by moonlight

May he drink and raise his head

Scenting the light wind.

May he crouch low in the grass

When the herdsmen pass ,

And slumber in dark caverns

When the sun is high .

May there always be tigers .

But not so many, that one of them

Might be tempted come into my room

In search of a meal!
