Literature – Writing Task

Character sketch of Gopal.

Gopal is the main character of the lesson 'The Day the Viceroy Came'. He was a school boy who loved playing games and doing naughty little things. He was quite enthusiastic and energetic. But as a small boy he was rather careless and unaware of the importance of his role and duty to discharge towards the crown. He was very happy with the little chunk of sweets distributed and the festive mood everyone was in. He was a typical boy of his age who was fond of creatures. His fondness was shown when he forgot everything and started playing with the ant analyzing its moves and antics. He was rather smart as tactfully answered all the questions his mother asked.

Character sketch of Ayah.

Ayah plays a significant role in the lesson 'The Wish'. She was like a member of the family. She was possessive at the beginning when she heard the family was going back to England. It was because of her fear of losing her job. But later became happy when grandmother arranged a new job for her. She was affectionate with the family especially with the little boy. She was also concerned for him as she gave him some warnings for the journey. She was faithful because she stayed with the family until they left Dehra. She was superstitious as she told him about the shooting star.

Summary of 'The Ant and the Cricket'.

The poem 'The Ant and the Cricket' is the best example for the proverb 'no pain no gain'. Through this poem we came to know that hard work is definitely paid. It deals with a lazy cricket and miserly ant. The lazy cricket had wasted his precious time by enjoying summer and spring season by singing instead of preserving food for winter. When winter had come he went to a miserly ant for borrowing some food as he did not want to die of starvation. He requested the ant for help but his request was not granted. At last the cricket lived there without food and shelter. The poem ends with a moral 'if you live without work, you must live without food'.
